

1. What is matter made of?

2. How do chemists use artificial chemicals? Give one example.

3. Why is the particle theory important?

4. Think back to the Key Question at the beginning of the section. What have you learned about matter? How do particles of matter behave?