

d. Wow! We can finish the job today.

Voice/s: _____

e. Today, we must finish.

Voice/s: _____

f. We would be finished, except that guy kept making stupid mistakes.

Voice/s: _____

8. a. Robert, stop that nonsense and report to the manager's office immediately.

Voice/s: _____

b. Robert, when you finish what you are doing, will you please come to the manager's office?

Voice/s: _____

c. The crowded, stuffy manager's office reminded me of my basement.

Voice/s: _____

d. The bright, cheery posters on the wall of the manager's office reflect a warm atmosphere.

Voice/s: _____

EXERCISE 3

Read the following sentences and then revise them to reflect the new voice given.

Example:

The building was tan. (neutral)

The building was painted in earth-tones.

(positive)

The building was painted a boring tan.

(negative)

1. Turn on the light! (angry)

(polite)